Community Meeting Superintendent Search

Tuesday, December 2, 2025

6-7 p.m.

William D. Ford Career-Technical Center

36455 Marquette, Westland, MI 48185

The Board of Education of Wayne-Westland Community Schools is seeking our next superintendent, with assistance from the Michigan Leadership Institute. Engaging members of our school community in this process is a priority for the Board, as your input will play a key role in shaping the selection of our next leader. We are offering two opportunities for you to contribute to this critical process. Your feedback is invaluable in ensuring that we identify a superintendent who will best meet the needs of our students, staff, and community.

Opportunity #1: Complete an Online Survey

Complete an online survey and share your thoughts on the qualities we should be looking for in our next superintendent. The survey will be open until Friday, December 5, at 4:30 p.m.

Survey link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/RGPY99D>

Opportunity #2: Attend an Interactive Meeting

We invite you to join us for an interactive meeting on Tuesday, December 2, where you can:

- Provide input to be used during the search for our next superintendent.
- Learn more about the search process.
- Ask questions and engage in conversation.
